

Social Messaging Service

Stefano Borghi | August 23, 2022

User Service: allows auth to the user and provides list of available users and their connection status

Message Service: establishes socket connection with the server to allow real-time async message exchange. It also allows to manage groups.

Streaming Service: allows to perform audio/video calls among clients

API

```
POST login -> token
{username, password}

POST logout
{token}

GET userStatus -> status
{token, userId}

POST createGroup -> group
{token, name, admin, participants}

DELETE deleteGroup
{token, groupId}

PUT updateGroup
{token, groupId, name, admin, participants}

POST sendMessage
{token, text, recipient, attachments}

DELETE deleteMessage
{token, messageId}

PUT updateMessage
{token, messageId, text, recipient}

POST callGroup
{token, groupId, withVideo}

POST endCall
{token, groupId}
```

User
+ id
+ name
+ email
+ phone_number

Message
+ id
+ text
+ attachments
+ sender
+ receipient
+ group_id
+ sent_at

Group
+ id
+ name
+ admin
+ pertecipants
+ created_at